The Hot List

Best Room Service in Town

It's a blizzard. And Valentine's Day approaches. A fortuitous combination like this only comes around once every 785 years. So you're not going anywhere. In this vein, we've scoured the city for the best meals to be had from room service, and the best rooms to enjoy them in. Because going out to eat would require putting on clothes, and that's just not what this Valentine's Day is all about.

Private Bartender Service

Room: The Surrey, The Penthouse

Food: Liquid dinner

Skinny: Heavy food might just slow you down. Instead of room service, order what we're calling "bartender service" to your room, and a pro cocktail engineer will show up with all the ingredients for your desired cocktail of choice. He'll listen to your relationship issues, ply you with booze, and when all is well and good, he'll disappear just before... well, you know...
